Employment Law Compliance Techniques & Update

There has been a steady stream of big verdicts/settlements announced against employers in employment law disputes. In addition, the Department of Labor, Immigration & Customs Enforcement (ICE) and OSHA are increasing their enforcement efforts and planned audits. This seminar is designed to help you be ready for compliance audits and protect yourselves from employment lawsuits. Learn techniques to operate within the law, avoiding costly law suits and fines. In addition, receive an update on recent legal changes and how to comply with them. Ken Spencer, President and SR. Human Resources Consultant for HR Service, Inc. provides professional HR techniques, compliance and training solutions.

Topics of discussion include:

- Preventing lawsuits and fines
- Preparing for increased compliance audits
- New Employment Law Changes & Techniques to comply
- More.....
